

Thought and character will always be one;
shaped by the outer environment,
harmoniously related to your inner state.

You are a creative power;
take the useful seeds,
and cultivate them to produce fruitful thought.

